The Pathways of History

Small museums continually search for innovative ideas to promote history as well as entice the public to visit their museums and historic places. In 2010 five enthusiastic Morris County groups conceived an idea designed to highlight their distinctive museums and historical properties of local significance; each one had a unique and fascinating story to share. Aptly called The Pathways of History – Links to Each Other and to the Past, this two-day tour was a huge success.

Now in its fifth year, the Pathways of History Tour has grown to include 20 historic locations. Each participant on the tour has planned something extra special for this extraordinary event. Admission is free at all locations. You can start at any point on the tour. Visit our website for more information.

The Kinnelon Borough Historical Commission received a grant administered by the Morris County Heritage Commission for the Morris County Board of Chosen Freeholders. The grant was funded by the New Jersey Historical Commission, a division of the Department of State.
